

From the CHANCELLOR

December 5, 2023

Dear TCU Students, Faculty and Staff,

I am pleased to announce that Texas Christian University's accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) has been reaffirmed for the next 10 years. This is a remarkable achievement that reflects our commitment to academic excellence, student success, community and institutional integrity.

The reaffirmation process involved a comprehensive self-study, an on-site visit by a team of peer reviewers and a thorough evaluation by the SACSCOC Board of Trustees. Thank you to Provost Teresa Abi-Nader Dahlberg, Vice Provost Susan Mace Weeks, SACSCOC Liaison David E. Allen and Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP) Leadership Team Co-Chairs Frank Hernandez and Claire Sanders for making this possible through their hard work and dedication. I also thank all the faculty and staff who contributed to this effort, especially those serving on the QEP Leadership and QEP Implementation teams.

Reaffirmation of our accreditation is not only a validation of our past achievements, but also an opportunity to envision our future aspirations. Horned Frog faculty, staff and students are a key part of our plan to ensure the next 150 years at TCU are even better than today. As we celebrate this important milestone, let us also renew our commitment to advancing TCU's mission and vision as a world-class, values-centered university.

Sincerely,

Victor J. Boschini, Jr.
Chancellor
