

From the PRESIDENT

November 13, 2023

Dear TCU Students and Families,

Texas Christian University's unrivaled academic and student experience continues to develop tomorrow's leaders. For 150 years, our dedication to TCU's mission and vision has ensured that we continue to invest in the value of a TCU degree, enhance our academic and student experience and plan for a strong future.

The TCU Board of Trustees met for their annual fall Board meetings last week. After thoroughly analyzing and considering economic factors, the Board announced a 7.9% tuition rate increase for the 2024-2025 academic year to maintain operations and future essential endeavors. In addition, the Board announced a differential tuition rate increase of $250 per credit hour for undergraduate classes in the Neeley School of Business for the 2024-2025 academic year.

The Board reaffirmed its commitment to making TCU more accessible by continuing to increase scholarships and financial aid for students and families in need. If you have any questions about qualifying for financial aid or additional scholarships, please visit financialaid.tcu.edu.

2024-2025 Academic Year Tuition Increase: The 7.9% tuition rate increase will make tuition for the 2024-2025 academic year $61,650 for full-time undergraduates, an increase of approximately $4,520 per undergraduate student. Need-based financial aid also will increase by 7.9% to match student and family need. Hourly undergraduate and graduate rates will increase by the same percentage.

Tuition Increase FAQ

Differential Tuition for the Neeley School of Business: Differential tuition will begin with the 2024-2025 academic year. An additional $250 per credit hour will be in place for all undergraduate courses in the Neeley School, supporting the implementation and advancement of high-impact student programs and outcomes. Affected students and families will receive detailed communication directly from Neeley's leadership, including additional information about financial support.

Neeley FAQ

As we look ahead to the next 150 years, we are committed to providing a TCU education that is excellent in every aspect. Our students, campus, student services and activities are all part of our ongoing investment in the future. We are also firmly committed to ensuring that TCU remains accessible to all qualified students, regardless of their financial circumstances.

Thank you for being a valued part of the Horned Frog community and entrusting your education to Texas Christian University.

Sincerely,

Daniel W. Pullin
President

Share this email:

View this email online.

2800 S University Drive
Fort Worth, TX | 76129 US

emma[®]

